Subject: Happy Hour at City Bistro in St. Augustine on May 18
Date: Wednesday, May 31, 2017 11:38:04 AM

A big round of applause to everyone who made it to the very lovely City Bistro. Our hosts, Ted Mooney, Senegal, CD in Uganda & Lesotho, his lovely wife Robyn and their partner Tash Olivera, South Africa were terrific. Excellent food & drink at great prices.

What a great turnout of RPCVs. Who knew there were so many in St. Augustine, and further south. The pictures tell most of the story, but the Open Mike was the key to the evening. Non stop Peace Corps stories for 1:15 minutes. Some of you couldn't make it, so watch for a date in the Fall. We will do this again. In addition to our hosts, we had several members of our FCRPCV Board in attendance. See them in the pictures also. BTW some of you are hearing from FCRPCV for the first time, since we just found your email address. Hope you stay with us.

Oops By the time we took this group photo 12 had already left. We had about 30 in all.

From the left January, Uganda , our hosts Ted & Robyn Mooney, thank you for a great time with JAN Miller, Botswana

Our host on the left in plaid shirt Ted Mooney , talking to Roger Plante, South Africa

Volunteers who joined after 50. From the left: JAN Miller, Botswana, Roger Plante, S Africa, Joan Lipp, Togo & Liberia, Rosemary Calhoon Takacs, Paraguay & Guatemala

Kind regards,

Jan Miller
